Motion made by Karen Ruechel, seconded by Michael Cherney, to approve the October 12th council meeting minutes as written. Votes in favor: Mike Cherney, Karen Ruechel and Brian Anderson. Votes against: None Motion carried.

Old Business:

Since Sterling Insurance Agency no longer requires the office space located at the 322 West Main Street building, the council discussed the idea if running an ad in the paper to see if anyone would be interested in renting/leasing the space again.

Motion made by Michael Cherney, seconded by Karen Ruechel, to approve the ad in the newspaper to rent out the office space located at 322 West Main Street. Votes in favor: Mike Cherney, Karen Ruechel and Brian Anderson. Votes against: None Motion carried.

Building Permits:

Dustin and Jess Wiste applied for a building permit to build a new home at 406 Vangsness Street in the new Boe Subdivision.

Motion made by Karen Ruechel, seconded by Michael Cherney, to approve a building permit to Dustin and Jess Wiste to build a new home at 406 Vangsness Street. Votes in favor: Mike Cherney, Karen Ruechel and Brian Anderson. Votes against: None Motion carried.

Boe Subdivision:

A discussion was brought up about streetlights going up in the new Boe Subdivision. The council talked about where to put the lights and how many were needed. The clerk was asked to gather more information from Freeborn Mower Coop and the city maintenance crew.

Also discussed, with the addition of Vangsness Street now intersecting with Co Rd 7 and the city expanding further to the North, was the idea of moving the reduce speed sign farther to the North on Co Rd 7 to give motorists more time to decelerate before they enter into the City of Adams.

No further business.

Motion made by Karen Ruechel, seconded by Michael Cherney, to adjourn at 5:55 PM. Votes in favor: Mike Cherney, Karen Ruechel and Brian Anderson. Votes against: None Motion carried.
